KEYSTONE NOTES

Attending the card party at the American Legion of Torrance Thursday from Keystone were Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Brazee and Mrs. Barbara Berry and son, Roy Berry.

John Hilpert of Grace street was among the Torrance high school boys who spent the day at Switzer's camp last week planting trees there. Mr. Merrill, a member of the Torrance high school faculty, accompanied the group and supervised the tree planting.

Dinner guests Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Brazee were Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Adridge, Mr. and Mrs. L. Ritchie and Mrs. Agnes Cogdway, all of Wilmington.

The two membership teams which recently ended their work for the Keystone Chamber of Commerce, held their dinner Friday night at the home of George H. Koehler being complimented by the losing team headed by Thomas A. Cowan. Following the serving of the dinner cards were played with prizes going to George Nahmens and Mrs. Harry C. Roque, while consolation prizes went to Harry C. Roque and Mrs. George Nahmens.

Mr. and Mrs. Walton Townsend and Chester Harshman of Keystone, and Joe Townsend of Torrance, spent the week-end at Kelly's Camp at Mount Baldy.

Plans are going forward for the card party to be held at Booster's hall here Saturday night as a benefit for the Pythian-Sisters' lodge in Wilmington and being sponsored by Mrs. Charles A. Brazee of Main street here. Worth while prizes will be given. The funds will be used to promote the work of this organization. All card lovers in this vicinity are urged to attend.

Carson street school will close Wednesday afternoon for the Thanksgiving holidays with appropriate exercises in the various rooms throughout the building. School will re-open again Monday morning.

The birthday anniversary of Miss Marjorie Sault of Amelia street was the incentive for a delightful party at her home Saturday night.

Baker Smith Plans Move to New Location

In line with his policy of continued expansion and progress, comes Baker Smith, Jeweler's announcement of a great removal sale beginning November 29, and continuing to December 31.

Mr. Smith has taken over the quarters formerly occupied by the Fess Grocery and Market, 1321 Sartori, and will occupy the store immediately after the holidays. Plans have been drawn for a complete remodeling, new display windows will be built and modern fixtures will be added to make the new store one of the finest of the harbor district.

The removal sale at 1318 Sartori offers a golden opportunity to all Christmas shoppers to secure new goods at substantial reductions, many items being listed at from one-fourth to one-half off. Many lovely articles are to be found here, delightful gifts to please the most exacting.

Harbor Group Will Meet at Keystone

KEYSTONE:—Charles A. Brazee, president of the Keystone Chamber of Commerce, presided at the regular business meeting held Saturday night. A rising vote of thanks was given the committee in charge of the recent street celebration. Plans were discussed for the Harbor District Chamber of Commerce meeting which will be held in Keystone December 11. A joint meeting of the directors and the entertainment committee of the chamber will be held December 3 to report on the final arrangements for this meeting.

Mrs. John Hilpert reported that she had obtained the names of all students now going from this district to the Torrance high school. It is planned to obtain the bus service for these students from the Board of Education. Mrs. E. H. Poole was appointed as custodian of the property of the chamber.
